Made in God’s Image: People of faith are fond of saying that everyone is “Made in God’s Image,” but intersex and transgender people get the message loud and clear that “everyone” doesn’t include them. This booklet communicates a gently assertive expectation that we as Christians need to get up to speed on something too rarely discussed but very important for the life of the church and its ministries. Combining valuable information, personal sharing, and resources, this booklet is a perfect starting place for any congregation, family, or individual.

Price: $5.95 each 5 or less, $5.00 each 6 or more, plus 10% shipping in the US.

Carly: She’s Still My Daddy is a skillfully crafted 20 page booklet for children of all types of transgender persons. It is appropriate for elementary school children either to read themselves or have parents read to them. It is a story from a child’s point of view about his father’s transition from Carl to Carly. The story also introduces the reader to other trans persons – female to male, intersex, crossdressers, and those who live in the middle.

NEW PRICE: 1 -9, $2.00 each, 10 – 35, $1.60, 36 – 99 $1.30, 100 and up $1.00 each, including shipping in the US.

Coming Out Trans To Your Parents & Family: This single-page trifold is a guide to making the coming out process as comfortable as possible. Topics include how long your feelings have persisted, your experience with a therapist/counselor, what changes they should expect, and how you will still be the same person – but with a different appearance.
